Work Experience

pm2am Trips GmbH & Co. KG, Wuppertal, Germany

April 2022 - Present

Digital Marketing Officer & Project Manager

- Planned and coordinated digital marketing campaigns for 60-85 organised European trips per year, aligning paid ads, social media content, email marketing, and trip promotion timelines.
- Managed Meta and Google Ads campaigns, including paid social, search, and retargeting campaigns, covering setup, budget monitoring, optimisation, and reporting.
- Improved paid campaign efficiency by increasing daily link clicks by 39.1%, improving link CTR by 64.3%, and reducing CPC by 20.1%.
- Expanded the paid advertising channels from mainly Meta Ads to include Google Ads, supporting search-based campaigns and reaching new customer segments.
- Created campaign materials for social media, paid ads, email, and customer communication, including promotional copy, visuals, reels, destination content, and trip updates.
- Created automated paid ads and organic content calendars in Google Workspace to plan campaign timelines, track deadlines, and maintain consistent promotional content.
- Tracked campaign performance using advertising platforms, analytics tools, and internal reports, translating results into practical improvements for targeting, content, budget use, and campaign timing.
